

Jon Moulton's Private equity pub quiz

The industry ages and its history extends accordingly. This month for a bit of fun I've provided a short quiz to test your knowledge about the early days of the industry – the idea having been triggered by meeting a very old venture capitalist on holiday

Veteran financier Jon Moulton has been involved in buyouts, turnarounds and venture capital since 1979 with firms such as CVC, Permira, Apax, Alchemy and, most recently, Better Capital, where he has been the chair since 2009

First edition of Private Equity News... see questions 11 and 12

Answers will be provided in the next issue and on peNews.com

1
Who is the oldest living UK venture capitalist?

2
Who is the oldest UK venture capitalist still investing today?

3
In what year was the first UK focused institutional venture capital fund set up?

4
What was name of that first fund?

5
In what year was the first UK focused institutional buyout fund set up?

6
What was name of that first fund?

7
In what year was the British Private Equity & Venture Capital Association (BVCA) started?

8
Who was the first chair of the BVCA?

9
Which private equity firm has the most knights and dames among its past and present teams?

Knights and dames of the realm... see question nine

Chancery House, the original headquarters of the BVCA on Chancery Lane... see question seven

A cleaner comparison... see question 13

10
What (roughly) was the effective rate of taxation on carried interest pre 2000?

11
Who was the first editor of Private Equity News?

12
Which month and year was the first issue of Private Equity News published?

13
Why and when did cleaner's pay become an issue for private equity?